Dear,
Ahmet C. Savas, PhD
Executive Editor

I/we would like to thank you for the your email and the opportunity to resubmit a revised copy of this article. I/we would also like to take this opportunity to express our thanks to the reviewers for the positive feedback and helpfull comment for correction of manuscript EU-JER ID#22100103262341.

I/we will very happy and proud if my/our manuscript can be published on your reputed journal.

The reviewer wrote;

“My main criticism of the paper is still valid. The authors have not still given any information about how character instruction was implemented in the study. How was this teaching implemented in this study? What did the students and researchers do during the data collection or instruction? What were the tasks of the students and researchers? These details should be explained explicitly. By the way, the text still has grammatical errors. The tone of the language in the method should be in the past tense. If the authors explain the details of character education and correct the English language of the paper, I will be okay with the revised paper in the next round”.

My / our comment put on methodology section with blue color, I/we also provided past tense tone for methodology section as reviewer suggestion.

Furthermore, other reviewer/author give suggestion to change my/our references to APA 7 Style, and I/we was changed on yellow color on references.

I / we hope editorial team can accept my/our manuscript for publish on EU-JR.

Thank you again,

Sincerelty,

Dr. Rianawati, M.Ag

Thank you for your offer to revise and resubmit this manuscript for consideration for publication in the European Journal of Educational Research. We appreciate the valuable and detailed comments made by the reviewers. I/We are currently hard working to thoroughly address their comments, and we have asked our team to assist with the requested revisions and final checking.

I/We note the deadline for resubmission is February 28,2022. To fully address all of the reviewers' comments in a manner that we hope will be satisfactory to them, and in light of travel commitments for some of the authors and the upcoming holidays, we would respectfully request a modest extension of the submission deadline to suggest 2 weeks. This time is used for final check and native proofreading with Elsevier language editing. The language editing certificate will be attached on article submit.

I/we also attached progress revision in this email. I/we also change manual references with Endnote Reference management using APA 7.

We hope this will be feasible, and we thank you for your consideration of this request.

I/we would like to thank you for the your email and the opportunity to resubmit a revised copy of this article. I/we would also like to take this opportunity to express our thanks to the reviewers for the positive feedback and helpfull comment for correction of manuscript EU-JER ID#22100103262341.

I/we will very happy and proud if my/our manuscript can be published on your reputed journal.

The reviewer wrote;

"My main criticism of the paper is still valid. The authors have not still given any information about how character instruction was implemented in the study. How was this teaching implemented in this study? What did the students and researchers do during the data collection or instruction? What were the tasks of the students and researchers? These details should be explained explicitly. By the way, the text still has grammatical errors. The tone of the language in the method should be in the past tense. If the authors explain the details of character education and correct the English language of the paper, I will be okay with the revised paper in the next round".

My / our comment put on methodology section with blue color, I/we also provided past tense tone for methodology section as reviewer suggestion.

Furthermore, other reviewer/author give suggestion to change my/our references to APA 7 Style, and I/we was changed on yellow color on references.

I / we hope editorial team can accept my/our manuscript for publish on EU-JR.

Dear
Ahmet C. Savas, PhD
Executive Editor of European Journal of Educational Research

Thank you for your offer to revise and resubmit this manuscript for consideration for publication in the European Journal of Educational Research. We appreciate the valuable and detailed comments made by the reviewers. I/We are currently hard working to thoroughly address their comments, and we have asked our team to assist with the requested revisions and final checking.

I/We note the deadline for resubmission is February 28,2022. To fully address all of the reviewers' comments in a manner that we hope will be satisfactory to them, and in light of travel commitments for some of the authors and the upcoming holidays, we would respectfully request a modest extension of the submission deadline to suggest 2 weeks. This time is used for final check and native proofreading with Elsevier language editing. The language editing certificate will be attached on article submit.

I/we also attached progress revision in this email. I/we also change manual references with Endnote Reference management using APA 7.

We hope this will be feasible, and we thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Dr. Rianawati
